Jester Center has a garden where herbs and vegetables are grown to use in the dining halls. It also houses the John L. Warfield Center for African & African-American Studies. The namesake of Gregory Gym, Thomas Watt Gregory, was one of the first 13 graduates of The University of Texas, in 1885. When you enter the gym look around—what do you notice? How is this different from the gym at your school? Check out the rock wall to your right as you walk in. Is there anyone climbing on it? Would you like to climb a wall like that? Walk down the concourse to overlook the pool. How many people are swimming? Loop back toward the entrance by walking around the squash and racquetball courts. What else do you see?

Clue to next stop: I am quiet every day of the week but Saturday, when I can hold a city's worth of yelling people.
